DATE/TIME OF REPORT: October 8, 2019, 2:45 P.M.

- According to a PG&E news release at 2:00 p.m., PG&E confirms it will shut off power to nearly 800,000 customers, including 38,000 in Santa Clara County, due to forecasted high winds and low humidity on Wednesday, October 9 through noon on Thursday, October 10. According to PG&E, the power shutoff could occur between midnight on Wednesday (late Tuesday night) and noon on Wednesday. PG&E has indicated a full power restoration could take up to 5 days.
- PG&E projects parts of east San Jose along the foothills and south San Jose in Almaden Valley (areas that are vulnerable to wildfires) to be affected. To view PG&E's Outage Map and search by address, visit: http://bit.ly/PGE_OutageMap.
- The City of San Jose will hold a press briefing at 4:45 p.m. in the Mayor's Conference Room on the 18th floor of City Hall. The City of San Jose will activate its Emergency Operations Center beginning Tuesday at 10 p.m., and has a Power Vulnerability Plan to prepare for and respond to PG&E Power Shutoffs.
- Residents and businesses should prepare for up to 7 days without power. For tips on how to prepare, visit www.sanjoseca.gov/index.aspx?NID=6380 or www.pge.com/psps.
- During the PG&E Power Shutoff, avoid leaving your home unless necessary.
- For updates, follow @CityofSanJose, the County @SCC_OES, and PG&E @PGE4Me on Twitter, Facebook and Nextdoor or visit www.sanjoseca.gov and www.pge.com/psps.
