

FAITH COMMUNITY ADVISORY COUNCIL

One County, Many Faiths - Working Together

Imagining New Possibilities Through Development An online forum for faith communities

Hosted by the Religious Land Use Working Group
Thursday, November 12, 2020. 6:00 - 7:30 pm

Faith community leaders and decision-makers are invited to listen, learn, and discuss the redevelopment potential of their properties. Faith communities with excess land, underutilized structures, or declining income will have the opportunity to imagine new possibilities while continuing to serve their members.

Guest speaker:

Robert A. Kronenberg, Deputy Director, Montgomery County Planning Department

Get an overview of the county's planning process, the status of the Thrive Montgomery 2050 master plan, and the importance of community involvement in the process.

Forum panel participants:

- Arlington Housing Corporation (AHC) / Habitat for Humanity
- Bozzuto Development Company
- Main Street Partners
- Neighborhood Development Company

Stretch your imagination as you listen to experienced developers explore ideas for faith-based properties, including affordable or senior housing units, and mixed-use development.

Register to receive the link for this free online forum: <https://conta.cc/3lEat2w>

For more information:

Email: interfaith@montgomerycountymd.gov

Website: <http://MontgomeryCountyInterfaithMD.org>

This program is hosted by the Religious Land Use Working Group in collaboration with the Montgomery County Planning Department.

Montgomery County, the Faith Community Advisory Council, and the Religious Land Use Working Group are offering this event for informational purposes only and are not endorsing any specific speaker or developer.

